DESIGN AND DURABILITY UNSURPASSED — TRADE Standard MARK

A Modern Bathroom

is truly so, only when it is equipped with the celebrated "Standard" Porcelain Enameled Ware. If you are using the old fashioned bathroom fixtures, don't you think it would be advisable to install in their place fixtures that are absolutely sanitary and modern?

The old fashioned plumbing fixtures are usually made partly of wood, with numerous cracks and crevices wherein dirt and filth can find lodgment, in fact, they make more dirt than they remove.

We would suggest that you let us remove the oldfashioned fixtures and install in their place the beautiful snowy white "Standard" Ware. You will then be provided with the most sanitary and modern fixtures made.

We will be pleased to quote you prices and will gladly give you information as to sanitary plumbing in the home. Write or ask for booklet, "Modern Home Plumbing."

PRESS NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Needham came in their auto from Berkeley on a visit with Mr. Needham's parents.

G. W. Page and family arrived home today from the coast. The editor was remembered with a good-sized rock cod.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adams and daughter desire to express their heartfelt thanks for the kindness and sympathy shown them in their bereavement.

Postmaster Coates has had a large gold-lettered "Post Office" sign placed on the front window and has now a separate window for rural mail, for use on Sunday. This will simplify distribution of mail very materially.

Our townsman, Wm. Beattie, had a visit this week from his brother and family, who have recently returned from their missionary duties in China, where our readers will remember they have been for some time and where but recently a band of Chinese bandits entered their home and forced them to relinquish all that they possessed of value.

Apricots About Gone.

This week will no doubt see the finish of apricots at the cannery, as there are practically no late Moorparks. This will make about 15 working days, or about half the usual run. Mr. Ainsley says it is the shortest run on 'cots he ever had and also the earliest. The 'cots have seemed to ripen up all at once, making it bad for the cannery workers, who have had to put in long hours. Mr. Ainsley says that the Blenheim and the Hemskirk varieties of apricots were the largest this year ever experienced and were very choice. He is to have a lot of peaches shipped in from Marysville, as he claims the cold spring has developed a poor peach around here—not enough sugar. Next week there will be very little doing at the cannery, but about the 20th work will begin on peaches.

Southern Pacific Cuts Rates.

Sweeping reductions in passenger rates on all its lines in the West are announced by the Southern Pacific. They became effective July 1st. It is believed that the reduction will mean an annual saving to passengers patronizing the Southern Pacific of from $500,000 to $1,000,000.

The rates in no case exceed 4 cents a mile in the mountainous districts and in nearly all instances does not exceed the 3 cents per mile rate. San Jose to Los Angeles the rate is reduced from $15 to $12.75. Other points in proportion.

This decrease in rate will be of immense advantage to the State, as cheap transportation means more travel. The company is to be commended for this new move.

The Grange Meeting.

Orchard City Grange met in regular session on Tuesday the tenth, with a goodly number of patrons in attendance. A class of four—Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer were initiated in the first and second degrees.

There was of course a lively discussion of the prune question, as this is a subject which never seems to tire (the men).

Bro. Capp reported for the special committee appointed to attend to the matter of having the switch changed on Hamilton avenue. He told of accidents which had occurred at this place. There is a general feeling among the people who have to travel this avenue that something should be done.

At the first meeting in August Mrs. Luther will have the lecturer's hour and has promised a treat to all lovers of good music. A recess will be declared at this time so friends may come in and share our entertainment.

Our next meeting is Tuesday, the 24th, at which the third and fourth degrees will be conferred, followed by a Harvest Feast.

Postmaster Coates Entertains.

Postmaster and Mrs. D. H. Coates are to leave on Aug. 6th to attend the Grand Army Encampment at Minneapolis. A party of Grand Army friends made it the occasion for a social call on the postmaster and wife last Wednesday night. A delightful time was had. Those present were Postmaster Hawley and wife, T. J. Stone and wife, Frank Eley and wife of San Jose, Mrs. Richards of Los Gatos, Rev. Geo. E. Atkinson of Campbell.

CALLED BY DEATH.

Fred G. Adams Summoned by the Reaper, Last Friday.

Fred G. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adams, died at Stockton last Friday night. He was a young man of sterling worth, hard working and studious. It was to these traits that led up to his death. In November, 1904, the family left Aberdeen, South Dakota, for Campbell, Mrs. Adams having previously visited her cousin, Mrs. Wythe, here. Fred Adams had been working very hard previous to their starting and had been studying at night, taking a course in mechanical engineering from a correspondence school. It is thought by the parents that he overworked himself, for after the journey westward had been begun he broke down on the train and in Colorado was removed and medical aid secured. A little later he was brought on to San Jose and placed in a hospital, it being necessary for a physician to accompany him, the high altitude having a bad effect upon him. During the past year and a half he had not recovered from the illness.

After the earthquake of April he was removed to the hospital at Stockton. Some three weeks ago he was taken with an illness which soon reduced him in strength. Mr. Adams went to Stockton to visit him on July 4th, 5th and 6th and left Friday afternoon for home, leaving his son apparently on the way to recovery. But last Saturday a telegram announced the death of the son which occurred the night before, or soon after the father left.

The remains arrived in Campbell Monday afternoon, and were taken to the family residence on Railroad avenue. The funeral services were held from the Congregational church Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock and were in charge of the pastor, Rev. George E. Atkinson, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Wythe. The music was furnished by Mrs. E. Janes, Mrs. David Schuyler and Mrs. Edward Merrill. The interment was at Los Gatos cemetery.

Fred Grant Adams, who was named after Col. Fred Grant, was born in Bluegrass, Vermillion county, Illinois, November 5, 1878. The parents and sister have the sympathy of the people in their sorrow.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise, instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but perfer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by the Farmers Union, Agent.

Saved His Comrade's Life.

I have been engaged for ten years in immigration work and conducted many parties to the south and west. I always carry this remedy and have used it successfully on many occasions." TO BRIDGE SAN FRANCISCO BAY.

The Southern Pacific to Build From Newark to Redwood City.

The Southern Pacific has made known its intention of running a railroad bridge across the south end of San Francisco Bay from Dumbarton Point, (opposite Newark) to Redwood City on the west side. A large drawbridge is planned for the channel, to accommodate passing vessels. It is thought that the Southern Pacific intends running the transcontinental trains from San Francisco to Redwood City, thence east over this bridge and on over its present right-of-way through Newark and Centerville to Niles, doing away with much congestion at the Oakland mole. In the matter of freight handling there would be a great saving.

But this important piece of railroading has caused a "tempest in the tea kettle" of the South Bay Yacht Club, that club feeling that its pleasures will be interfered with. Maybe the bridge will interfere somewhat, but it strikes us that this is a small loss, compared with the immense benefits to be gained by having the bridge built. For years the people of this section have been crying out for more railroads, and now that we are beginning to get them let us encourage the promoters, instead of jumping them at every turn.

More roads means better service and cheaper rates for the people. It has been stated that this bridge can also be used by competing lines. We do not know as to this. At any rate this section of the State is just entering upon an era of electric and steam road building. Now's the time to aid the good work.

As Palo Alto Views the Bridge Matter.

At the Board of Trade meeting held Monday night a resolution was passed that the Palo Alto Board of Trade fully endorse the action of the Southern Pacific in bridging the bay from Dumbarton Point to this side. Nearly everyone present at the meeting favored this connecting link with the mainland, from the point of view of the advantage to Palo Alto, as the point of contact on this side is a mile above Cooley's Landing, which is Palo Alto's bay shipping point. The few opposing opinions were that it would interfere with traffic in this end of the bay, with yachting and with freighting by water, but Marshall Black, president of the Board of Trade, voiced the opinion of the majority in saying in an interview: "This will bring Palo Alto within three miles of a transcontinental line. Instead of going to Oakland to take an eastbound train, we can take one at Redwood City. It means the development of this peninsula. We have no bay traffic at present worth considering, and what there is can be accommodated by the drawbridge. With the bay shore cut-off completed, and transcontinental freight and passenger traffic crossing the bay at Dumbarton Point, the future growth of San Francisco will be down the peninsula instead of across the bay. It will bring the attention of the people this way."

Santa Clara Town Trustees Act.

Resolved, That the Board of Town Trustees, representing the interests of Santa Clara, believe that the expressions of a communication sent to Col. Heuer by A. T. Foster, Secretary of the Santa Clara Commercial League, wherein the latter referred to the Southern Pacific project to bridge channel at Dumbarton Point, as a "scheme of robbery,"

Resolved, that this is not the sentiment of heavy shippers and business men of Santa Clara, who favor an enterprise to build up the State and to facilitate transportation and bridging channel at Dumbarton Point with a drawbridge, subject to proper regulations, will not prevent navigation nor obstruct it in any unreasonable extent and in the interest of commerce and particularly to the upbuilding of San Francisco, we are heartily in favor of the bridge."

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis E. Hanger are off to the coast for a couple of weeks pleasure.
